

Name	ENI	Length	Width

		Done (Yes/no)
Before the voyage	Current length and beam of the vessel/convoy (Inland AIS)
	Radio report the voyage to traffic control centers
	Electronically report the voyage (BICS) ⁱ
	Navigational status on "under way using engine" (Inland AIS)
During the voyage	Check the AIS data that is correctly received together with the traffic control centers or other ships.
	In the event of a voyage interruption of more than two hours, the skipper reports the start and the end of the interruption ⁱ .
	In the event of convoy change, report the change in length and beam in the Inland AIS
After the voyage	Navigational status on "moored" or "at anchor" in Inland AIS
	Report by radio your end of voyage to traffic control centers ⁱ
	Electronically report the end of voyage (BICS) ⁱ
Always report any changes in logbook and service record books

ⁱ If the vessel has the obligation to report electronically